

nomen _____

dies _____

Lingua Latina, Gradus II

Pensa: Aprilis 14-23

Legal Latin: magnum opus _____

Dies Lunae, 4/14

1. Practice your Stage 12 Vocabulary. The quiz for this will be on the comp!

*Meanings: English to Latin

*noun bases

*present and perfect tenses of verbs

Dies Martis, 4/15

1. Read the “About the Language”, page 212.

2. Make a color-coded chart of the present, imperfect and perfect tenses of porto, carry. Put the bases in one color, any tense indicators in another color, and the endings in still a different color. (Hint: See page 212!).

3. Copy all the verbs out of E. “Further Examples”, in Latin, into the following chart (which you should make on another piece of paper)

Imperfect Tense

Perfect Tense

Then translate each verb.

Dies Mercurii, 4/16

1. Read “ad urbem”, page 208.

2. Write a good story summary sheet.

*In difficult/new grammar section, find one example of each verb tense, copy out the full sentence in Latin, underlining the verb, translate.

Dies Iovis, 4/17

1. Write out a full translation of “ad villam”, page 209.

2. Study Stage 12 vocabulary

Dies Veneris, 4/18

1. Write out a full translation of “finis”, page 210.

Dies Lunae, 4/21

1. Finish the worksheet on Pliny the Younger’s account of the eruption of Vesuvius.

2. Study vocabulary.

Dies Martis, 4/22

The comp begins tomorrow and runs for two days. Practice what you need!

7th Grade Latin Comprehensive:

Wednesday, April 23rd

*Stage 12 Vocabulary

1. Practice your Stage 12 Vocabulary. The quiz for this will be on the comp!

*Meanings: English to Latin

*noun bases

*present and perfect tenses of verbs

*Some miscellaneous words from Stages 1-11, meanings only.

*Grammar Rules and forms

1. definitions of things relating to nouns and verbs

2. the three ways to translate each verb tense

3. how to form each verb tense

4. personal pronouns

Thursday, April 24th

*Translation: any story from Stage 12

*The eruption of Vesuvius